

Hebrews 2:14-18

Life Group Leader Guide

Sermon Recap

This Sermon emphasized the importance of understanding Jesus as our perfect savior from the book of Hebrews, highlighting four key roles: pioneer of our salvation, our brother, our deliverer, and our merciful high priest. He explained how Jesus, through his suffering and humanity, not only completes God's redemptive plan but also identifies with our struggles and emotions. By defeating death, This sermon pointed out that Jesus frees us from the fear of death and provides us with the strength to face temptations in life. Believers are encouraged to build confidence in their relationship with God, knowing that Jesus understands and helps through our trials.

Discussion Questions

1. What does it mean for Jesus to be called our 'pioneer of salvation' according to the sermon, and how does this concept impact our understanding of His role in our lives?
 - The sermon explains that Jesus is referred to as the 'pioneer of our salvation,' meaning He has blazed a trail for us to follow and secured a way for humanity to reach God through His suffering.
 - How can you actively follow the 'trail' that Jesus has laid out for you in your own life, especially during difficult times?

2. How does the passage in Hebrews 2:14-15 about Jesus destroying the fear of death speak to your understanding of life and challenges you may face?

- The sermon highlights that Jesus took on flesh and blood to overcome death and free us from the fear that enslaves humanity.
 - In what ways can you apply the truth of Jesus' victory over death to alleviate your worries or fears in everyday life?
3. The sermon outlines four important roles of Jesus: pioneer, brother, deliverer, and merciful high priest. Which role resonates with you the most and why?
 - These roles illustrate different aspects of how Jesus relates to us and fulfills God's plan for salvation and support during our suffering.
 - How can you remind yourself of this particular role of Jesus in your daily struggles and challenges?
 4. According to the sermon, Jesus helps those who are tempted and suffering. What does it practically look like to take your struggles to Jesus for help?
 - The sermon stresses that Jesus, having experienced suffering Himself, is equipped to help those who face temptation and hardship.
 - Can you think of a recent situation where you faced temptation or struggle? How might turning to Jesus for help change your approach in the future?
 5. In the sermon, it discusses the idea of Jesus not being ashamed to call us His brothers and sisters. What does this say about our relationship with Him?
 - The sermon emphasizes that despite our sinful nature, Jesus chooses to bridge the gap and includes us in His family, highlighting His solidarity with humanity.
 - How does knowing that Jesus considers you family influence the way you go to Him in prayer or in times of need?

Prayer 🙏

- Ask for prayer requests and encourage sharing. • Pray for guidance to apply the truths of the sermon in daily life this week. • Request strength to follow Jesus as our brother and high priest in times of temptation. • Ask for opportunities to share the hope found in Jesus with others.
